Welcome

Dear Friends,

Thank you for joining us this holiday season at The Old Globe. 2006 has been an incredible year for the Theatre, having just wrapped up our enormously popular production of George Gershwin Alone. The Summer Shakespeare Festival was one of the most successful in Globe history, and three world-premieres graced our stages, including the Twyla Tharp/Bob Dylan musical THE TIMES THEY ARE A-CHANGIN', which is currently playing to sold-out audiences on Broadway. This year also saw the launch of our $75 million Capital Campaign to help build the Globe’s endowment and enhance facilities.

We are thrilled to welcome back for its ninth year our delightful holiday musical, Dr. Seuss’ HOW THE GRINCH STOLE CHRISTMAS!, made possible through the generosity of Audrey Geisel, The San Diego Union-Tribune, and other sponsors. And while the Grinch is playing on the Globe stage, Broadway audiences will also have the chance to witness our exciting holiday tradition as the production makes its New York debut this month.

We are so pleased to bring this holiday favorite to San Diego year after year, along with many Grinch outreach programs in the community. In addition to providing 4,000 free tickets for underserved children throughout the run, the Globe is again presenting the Grinch Children’s Literacy Initiative, an ongoing project in conjunction with our annual Seuss-Abra- tion event, as well as our popular Grinch Family Experience, offering fun hands-on theatre activities for families while raising money for the Globe’s education programs. We are also delighted to bring back the enchanting bilingual nativity play, Teatro Máscara Mágica’s LA PASTORELA, in the Cassius Carter Centre Stage.

At this time of year we encourage you to consider making or renewing your year-end special holiday or campaign gift in support of The Old Globe and all that you have come to cherish about the institution. Ticket sales cover only 55% of the cost of mounting our world-class productions, and we rely on your contributions to help ensure the artistic vitality of the Globe today and for years to come.

We sincerely thank you for your ongoing support, and wish you and your families all the best this festive season.

Dear Friends,

Thank you for joining us for this wonderful holiday musical, Dr. Seuss’ How the Grinch Stole Christmas! Now in its ninth consecutive year at the Globe, this has truly become a holiday tradition for families throughout San Diego. This wonderful production comes to us each year from the generosity of our dear friend Audrey Geisel. I’m sure you join me in thanking her for this priceless gift! Both she and The San Diego Union-Tribune have been stalwart supporters of this show, and all of San Diego benefits from their support.

This has been a fabulous year for the Globe and thank you for helping to make it a success! We are having a very successful season in which three of our plays have gone to New York, including Twyla Tharp’s THE TIMES THEY ARE A-CHANGIN’, which sold more tickets than any show in the Globe’s amazing history, and our holiday classic, Dr. Seuss’ How the Grinch Stole Christmas!

As you know, The Old Globe succeeds because of people like you! By your continued attendance at our performances and your annual gifts of support, we survive. We couldn’t do it without you! We wish for you and your families a very happy and very healthy holiday season!

The Old Globe is supported in part by grants from The City of San Diego Commission for Arts and Culture, Supervisor Pam Slater-Price and The County of San Diego.
More than 40,000 children and adults in San Diego, Imperial and Riverside Counties participate each year in The Old Globe’s education and outreach programs, ranging from reading initiatives for underserved schools to touring performances in high schools to public lectures with artists and educators.

THE GRINCH CHILDREN’S INITIATIVES

Dr. Seuss’ How the Grinch Stole Christmas! is more than just a play on the Globe’s stage – it also offers a series of education programs and celebrations, collectively known as The Grinch Children’s Initiatives, that capture the spirit of the season and production by giving back to the community.

Through the support of individuals and companies, the Globe provides more than 14,000 children with free or greatly discounted tickets to a live performance of Dr. Seuss’ How the Grinch Stole Christmas!

One event during the Grinch performances is Seussabration, which celebrates the play’s opening with 600 students from Title One schools, who spend a day in Balboa Park. The students enjoy a matinee performance, meet Globe artists, play in falling snow and eat lunch before returning to their schools with additional educational materials.

GRINCH FAMILY EXPERIENCE

To support the Globe’s education programs, this year on Sunday, December 3, families will gather to create craft activities together at the Grinch Family Experience, which also includes lunch and preferred theatre seating. To reserve your seats to this exclusive event or for more information, please call (619) 231-1941, x2317 or email Events@TheOldGlobe.org

Thank you to the Globe’s Education Sponsors who provide thousands of children each year with their first opportunity to experience live theatre, improve their literacy skills and enhance their arts education.

The Old Globe’s Education Sponsors include:

THE GLOBE’S LITERACY INITIATIVE

This new initiative has been developed from a component of The Grinch Children’s Initiative, through which Globe docents and Globe Teaching Artists worked with more than 1,100 students who wrote their own stories and plays in English, Spanish and French as part of the Globe Readers Program. Some of the most moving stories came from students through the International Rescue Committee, who described in detail their recent immigration to the United States from Cuba, Afghanistan and Iraq, which were read and performed on the Globe’s Cassius Carter Centre Stage this summer.

THE SHAKESPEARE INITIATIVE FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

This program provides the opportunity for high school, junior college and university students to study the life and times of Shakespeare and his plays, while enhancing their English, Drama and History/Social Studies curriculum through in-class presentations, observing rehearsals and attending a performance during the Globe’s Shakespeare Festival with pre- and post-show discussions. The Globe’s 2007 Summer Shakespeare productions include Hamlet, The Two Gentlemen of Verona and Measure for Measure. For additional information, contact our Group Sales Manager at (619) 231-1941, x2408.

OUTREACH TOURING PRODUCTIONS

Through this program, the Globe produces plays specially created for young audiences. This past October and November, more than 5,000 students attended performances of The Stones, an imaginative and thought-provoking work which addresses the importance of teens taking responsibility for their actions and considering consequences of their decisions. The play is based on a true story of how a harmless game transformed from prank to crime when two teenagers kicked a rock off a freeway overpass resulting in a fatal car crash. To schedule future plays in the Outreach Touring Production series for your school or community site, contact Raúl Moncada at (619) 231-1941, x2141 or email at RMoncada@TheOldGlobe.org.
There’s really no point in telling you much about How the Grinch Stole Christmas!, since you are about to see for yourself. If this is your very first time in a theatre, I can only say that I envy you the next 80 or so minutes, and rest assured that we’re going to do our very best to make sure you never forget this moment, and that you continue to come back for the rest of your life.

If this is your zillionth time in the theater, you know how futile these program notes can be. If I have to “explain” anything, I probably shouldn’t have tried to put it on stage in the first place, right? So we can get right past that one, as well.

No, what I wish to share with you in the brief moments before the house lights go down, is an appreciation for a very special kind of genius. The kind of genius that uses words in such an enchanting way as to make us — whether we are children or adults — want to read them! Actually want to read!

No need to talk about philosophy: there’s plenty of it tucked away in the work of Dr. Seuss, and there will be ample opportunities for discovery in the delicious musical just ahead. But it’s not just that Dr. Seuss had something to write about — it’s the way he chose to write it. Words that are fun to see. Words that are fun to say. Words that must be repeated out loud, over and over, and yet, words that never tire our ears, no matter how many generations continue to repeat them.

Every Who Down in Who-ville Liked Christmas a lot …

But the Grinch, Who lived just north of Who-ville, Did NOT!

Made up words. Inverted words. Silly words. Solemn words. Musical words. Percussive words. Words that float like feathers, that loop like birds, that squiggle like gerbils, that splat like tubas.

What an imagination he had! What a thrilling, unmistakable, unique, fabulous imagination. And that he chose to share it with us, while we’re young — well, that’s the most amazing thing of all!

He made, in the Grinch, a fantabulous creature, one that is destined to live forever. Right up there, I believe, with King Lear, and Harpagon, and Oedipus, and Saint Joan. A creature that fascinates, that challenges, that insults, that even “scarifies” us.

And one we take to our hearts, like that other glowing holiday gorgon, Ebenezer Scrooge — and for some of the very same reasons. But in giving this creature to us, Dr. Seuss chose words that have never been put together in a similar way before, nor since. He’s a reader’s dream. Thank God!

It seems to us here at the Globe we have a great deal to be thankful for this holiday season. We are all here, together for the holidays, together with our real and chosen families. That’s quite enough of a gift; but there in the same stocking, is someone called Dr. Seuss. And that, just possibly, is the very best present of all.

— Jack O’Brien

ARTS EDUCATION IN THE CLASSROOM

As a result of the reduction of arts education funding in San Diego County schools, The Old Globe will continue to increase its presence in the classroom through pre-show workshops by Globe Teaching Artists before students attend a matinee performance at the Globe. Already scheduled are student matinees for August Wilson's Two Trains Running and Edward Albee's classic, Who’s Afraid of Virginia Woolf? For more information, contact Raúl Moncada at (619) 231-1941, x2141 or email at RMoncada@TheOldGlobe.org.

“FOLLOW THE BARD” TOURS

Middle and high school student groups are invited to take a field trip to the Globe for a behind-the-scenes “Shakespeare Scavenger Hunt.” Throughout the tour, students discover how the magic of theatre is created on the Globe's three stages and search for hidden objects that introduce details of Shakespeare's plays and characters, as well as Elizabethan history and folklore. For reservations or more information about tours, contact Raúl Moncada at (619) 231-1941, x2141.

THE OLD GLOBE OFFERS UNIQUE OPPORTUNITIES FOR STUDENTS AND ADULTS TO GET CLOSER TO THE ART ON STAGE

INSIGHTS SEMINARS

A great opportunity to get closer to the art, Insights Seminars with actors, designers and directors are offered for each Old Globe production. Artists from all phases of the production process meet with patrons in a lively exchange of ideas and insights that enhance the theatre-going experience. Insights Seminars begin at 6:30pm in the theatre where the production is performed, and conclude with an informal champagne reception. Reservations are requested. The seminars are FREE to all donors and subscribers. For those not in either category, single seminars are $5.

POST-SHOW FORUMS

Join us after Globe performances for an informal question and answer session with the cast and creative team, who will share with you the “inside story” of creating a character and putting together a production.

BACKSTAGE TOURS

Discover how the magic is created with a behind-the-scenes tour of The Old Globe, including a backstage look at the Old Globe Theatre, the Cassius Carter Centre Stage and the Lowell Davies Festival Theatre. Public tours are offered most Saturdays and Sundays at 10:30am. Tickets: $5 for adults; $3 for seniors/students/military. Please call (619) 231-1941 x2142 for information and reservations.
Paving a Bright Future for The Old Globe Through Planned Gifts

The Old Globe has many thoughtful friends who are ensuring its future by making gifts to the Theatre in their wills and estate plans. The League honors today these thoughtful friends whose generosity will sustain the excellence of The Old Globe for generations, and we hope you’ll consider joining the Craig Noel League, the planned giving society of The Old Globe. Examples of ways friends are helping include making simple bequests, gifts of life insurance, gifts of real estate and charitable trusts. For more information, please contact Associate Director of Development Brad Ballard at (619) 231-1941 x2309 or via e-mail at PlannedGiving@TheOldGlobe.org.

CRAIG NOEL, Founding Director

During Craig Noel’s distinguished 67-year career with The Old Globe, the much-honored director has staged over 225 productions of all styles and periods. Craig has been associated with The Old Globe since its community-theatre inception in 1937 when he made his debut as an actor. Two years later he accepted his first directorial assignments, staging four of the season’s seven productions.

Since then, Craig has guided the organization through its metamorphosis from a community theatre of the highest standards to one of the nation’s most successful not-for-profit theatres. In doing so, he has enriched the quality of life in San Diego for generations of citizens who have become today’s theatre-goers and arts supporters.
To you — and to thousands of other theatre lovers —

The Old Globe is an integral part of your lives, providing some of the best Broadway musicals,

classics and new plays in the country.

Please consider supporting this great theatre with a year-end tax-deductible gift of $1,500 or more, and you’ll not only add to the artistic quality of Globe productions but you also can take advantage of the many benefits as an Old Globe Circle Patron, such as...

* Unlimited access to the Lipinsky Family Suite,
  the Globe’s VIP Lounge
* VIP ticketing and personal service
* Invitations to Meet the Artist and Opening Night events
* Backstage Tour opportunities
* And much, much more...

Open prior to and during each evening performance,
the Lipinsky Family Suite offers a fully-hosted bar,
a pre-show dinner menu and private restrooms.

It’s our way of saying thank you for your support.

THE OLD GLOBE
The Old Globe $75 Million Capital Campaign
We Still Need Your Annual Fund Support!

“Securing a San Diego Landmark,” the Globe’s five-year fundraising campaign, was launched in March to raise $75 million before the Theatre’s 75th Anniversary in 2010. With lead gifts from Donald and Darlene Shiley and Conrad Prebys, this Campaign has raised more than $46 million to date.

These campaign gifts are designated for specific purposes, such as facilities construction or endowment, and do not support the Globe’s annual artistic and education programs. For this reason, the Globe must continue to raise $7 million each year in annual contributions — from ticket buyers and subscribers like you — to support an operating budget of $17 million.

Your annual contribution plays a critical role in helping fund artistic and education programs, and we encourage you to support the Globe with a new or increased annual gift today.

When you contribute, you receive special benefits, including backstage tours, free lectures by Globe artists and access to the Lipinsky Family Suite. To learn more or to contribute, contact Courtney Quinn at (619) 231-1941 x2311 or CQuinn@TheOldGlobe.org.

CELEBRATE 2006 AND SPONSOR A SEAT IN THE GLOBE THEATRE

The Old Globe Theatre now has new seats, thanks to the generosity of many of our community members, bringing your comfort level up to that of Globe performance quality.

Installing these beautiful new seats and carpeting has been a major undertaking, and we hope you will help us defray the costs by naming one or more of the new seats. Sponsor a seat for $5,000, and we will inscribe your name on a brass arm-rest plaque, as a acknowledgment of your leadership in Globe support.

The Old Globe begins the 21st Century with national and international artistic presence like never before. Reserve your place in the history of The Old Globe by calling our Development Office at (619) 231-1941 x2309 today.
The Old Globe’s ability to maintain the highest standard of excellence, while keeping ticket prices affordable, is due in large part to the financial support of more than 3,500 individuals, businesses, foundations and government agencies. Please join us in giving a warm thanks and recognition to these leaders who have made tonight and our 625 other performances possible. The Old Globe appreciates the support of those who have stepped into the spotlight.

Ticket exchanges are subject to a service charge for non-subscribers. If you have moved, please notify the Ticket Services Office to update our records. Call (619) 234-5623 during Ticket Services hours, mail your change of address to the Ticket Services Office, or email us at Tickets@TheOldGlobe.org.

UNABLE TO ATTEND?
If you find you are unable to use your tickets, please give them to a friend, or turn them in to the Ticket Services Office and receive a tax receipt for your donation. Tickets must be received by show time.

RESTROOMS AND TELEPHONES
Restrooms are located in the lower lobby of the Old Globe Theatre and adjacent to the Festival Theatre; pay phones may be found in the lower Globe Theatre lobby and next to the Gift Shop.

SEATING OF LATECOMERS
Although we understand parking is often at a premium, the seating of latecomers is extremely disruptive. Latecomers may be given alternative seating and will be seated at an appropriate interval.

YOUNG CHILDREN
Children three years of age and under will not be admitted to performances.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES AND CAMERAS
Use of recording devices and cameras is not permitted. If you are wearing a digital watch or pager, or if you are carrying a cellular phone, please silence it prior to entering the theatre.

SENNHEISER® LISTENING SYSTEM
For the convenience of the hearing impaired, the Sennheiser® Listening System is available in the Old Globe Theatre. Lightweight headsets may be obtained from the house manager prior to performances, free of charge.

PUBLIC TOURS
Go behind the scenes at The Old Globe to learn about the history, three stages, shop and craft areas. Open tours: most Saturdays and Sundays at 10:30am. Groups by reservation. $5 adults; $3 seniors and students. Phone (619) 231-1941 x2142 for information/reservations.

LOST AND FOUND
If you have misplaced a personal item while at the theatre, please contact the Ticket Services Office or Security as soon as possible. If we are unable to locate your item, we’ll happily take down your contact information as well as a description of the item and contact you if it is found. The Old Globe does not assume liability for items left behind on premises. Ricola Cough Drops are available upon request. Please ask an Usher.
Director Profiles

LOUIS G. SPISTO
Executive Director

Louis G. Spisto has served as Executive Director of The Old Globe since October, 2002. During his tenure, Spisto spearheaded the return of the Globe’s acclaimed Shakespeare Repertory Season and produced several world-premiere plays and musicals, including Dirty Rotten Scoundrels, Chita Rivera: The Dancer’s Life, and the Twyla Tharp/Bob Dylan musical, THE TIMES THEY ARE A-CHANGIN’, which will transfer to Broadway in September, 2006, along with the Globe’s annual holiday favorite, Dr. Seuss’ How the Grinch Stole Christmas!. In March, 2006, Spisto spearheaded the launch of the Globe’s Capital Campaign, “Securing a San Diego Landmark,” to raise $75 million by the Theatre’s 75th anniversary in 2010. The campaign is off to a hugely successful start, having reached 61% of its goal. During the past four seasons, the organization has grown its subscription audience an unprecedented amount, counteracting a trend in the non-profit theatre industry, resulting in the highest level of attendance in over a decade. Prior to coming to the Globe, Spisto served as the Executive Director of American Ballet Theatre in New York City. While there, he increased ticket income and annual contributions for the organization by nearly 20 percent. He also tripled the Ballet’s touring weeks and the resources devoted to education and training programs. Spisto has also served as the President of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, where he provided fundraising leadership and creative direction for the orchestra’s $60 million renovation project, and helped dramatically increase ticket sales while initiating several new series for the orchestra. Spisto established a reputation as a superb arts executive here in California, where he spent over ten years as the Executive Director of the Pacific Symphony Orchestra in Orange County. During his tenure there, he tripled the orchestra’s annual budget, all while eliminating a prior deficit and successfully completing the orchestra’s first endowment campaign. In addition, he established a series of innovative recording projects with Sony Classical and oversaw a number of nationally recognized commissioning projects. A strong advocate of arts education, Spisto built one of the largest and most respected music training and outreach efforts. During his career, Spisto has also served as Director of Marketing for the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra and Director of Operations and Development for the Performing Arts Center, UC Berkeley. He holds a Masters degree from the University of Wisconsin in Arts Administration and a Bachelors of Business Administration from the University of Notre Dame, and spent many years acting, directing and producing plays and musicals throughout his student days, as well as in professional summer theater.

JERRY PATCH
Resident Artistic Director

Jerry Patch was appointed Resident Artistic Director of The Old Globe in February 2005. He most recently served as the Dramaturg and a member of the long standing artistic team at Southern California’s Tony Award®-winning South Coast Repertory (SCR), where he coordinated the development of 150 new plays, including two Pulitzer Prize winners and numerous other finalists. Patch became the top choice for this new role at the Globe due to his many years of artistic accomplishments, his exceptional relationships with the nation’s leading directors and playwrights, and his enthusiastic commitment to new work. While at SCR, Patch worked as Dramaturg on numerous new works, including Donald Margulies’ Sight Unseen and Brooklyn Boy, which just opened to critical acclaim on Broadway, Margaret Edson’s Pulitzer Prize-winning Wit, Howard Korder’s Search and Destroy, Amy Freed’s The Board of Avon, Safe in Hell and Freedomland, and Lynn Nottage’s Intimate Apparel, nine world-premieres by Richard Greenberg, including Three Days of Rain. In addition, he co-conceived The Education of Randy Newman with Michael Roth and Mr. Newman. Patch also served as the project director of SCR’s renowned Pacific Playwrights Festival, which annually introduces seven new plays to an audience of national theatre leaders. Typically, more than 75% of the plays presented receive multiple productions in theatres across the country. During his tenure at SCR, Patch also held the position of Artistic Director (1990-1997) of The Sundance Theatre Program, which included the Sundance Playwrights Laboratory, one of the nation’s leading new play development programs. Additionally, he ran the Sundance Summer Theatre, a repertory of 2-3 productions staged outdoors for Utah audiences and The Sundance Children’s Theatre, which is dedicated to the development and presentation of new works for family audiences by leading American playwrights. He also serves as Consulting Dramaturg for New York’s Roundabout Theatre Company.

JACK O’BRIEN
Artistic Director

Mr. O’Brien has been the Artistic Director of The Old Globe in San Diego since 1982. Recent Globe productions: Dirty Rotten Scoundrels, Imaginary Friends, Twelve Night, The Full Monty, The Seagull, The Magic Fire, Dr. Seuss’ How the Grinch Stole Christmas!, the world premieres of Associate Artist A.R.
