Dear Friends,

Welcome to The Old Globe's 2008-2009 Winter Season and to our production of Back Back Back. We are so pleased to welcome back Itamar Moses (The Four of Us, Bach at Leipzig) as the Globe's 2008 Playwright-in-Residence and to produce the World Premiere of his timely exploration of steroid use in baseball.

Welcome as well to our interim space, The Old Globe Arena Stage at the San Diego Museum of Art's James S. Copley Auditorium. We are well underway in the building of the Conrad Prebys Theatre Center, which will include a new arena stage, education center, and re-designed plaza. With these additions, the Globe is preparing for the future — a future that contains dazzling new productions in the state-of-the-art “second stage” theatre, expanded education and audience enrichment programs, and an even more beautiful setting for the enjoyment of our patrons and millions of Balboa Park visitors each year.

Here at the San Diego Museum of Art, we have designed and constructed an intimate theatre, modeled on the former Cassius Carter Centre Stage, while construction of our new theatre center takes place. Later in the season, you will enjoy a close-up experience of three more theatrical gems in this space: the moving story of an American family and a “Lost Boy” of Sudan, Since Africa; the West Coast premiere of a recent New York success, Michael Hollinger's Opus; and, in our continuing “Classics Up Close” series, Arthur Miller's moving drama The Price.

On the Old Globe stage, we're bringing you four entertaining and completely different snapshots of life in America — a lavish production of Clare Boothe Luce's legendary tour-de-force, The Women (now playing); Tony Award-winning playwright John Guare's thought-provoking Six Degrees of Separation, recently acclaimed as one of the 20 best plays of the last 20 years; the world premiere of Cornelia, a rousing, true-life tale; and a new vision of the classic musical Working from the creator of Wicked.

It's a great season and we thank you for being with us. Enjoy this performance of Back Back Back!
The Old Globe is deeply grateful to its Season Sponsors, each of whom has made an annual donation of $50,000 or greater. These gifts are critical to maintaining the Theatre’s high quality of artistic programming and award-winning work in the community.

The Edgerton Foundation

The Edgerton Foundation has launched an initiative to support the development of original theatrical works by helping fund exceptional projects that could ultimately join the American repertoire of widely performed plays and musicals. The world-premiere production of Back Back Back by Itamar Moses was selected to receive an Edgerton Foundation New American Play Award in 2008. The Old Globe applauds the Edgerton Foundation’s willingness to foster the inherently demanding creative process needed to create a new work of lasting merit.
Dear Friends,

Welcome to this performance of Back Back Back. We have a wonderful line-up in the coming year, and I hope you’ll join us for each and every one of our productions in the 2008/09 Season.

You’ll have noticed that construction is underway on our exciting new facility, the Conrad Prebys Theatre Center. Scheduled to open in late 2009, this facility has been made possible by our capital and endowment campaign, Securing a San Diego Landmark, led by magnanimous gifts from Conrad Prebys, Donald and Darlene Shiley and our Board of Directors. We are extremely grateful to them and the many other community-minded supporters, who have – to date – helped us reach more than 85% of our $75 million goal!

And with that goal in sight, we now turn to you for assistance in completing this campaign. All gifts – large and small – make a difference by ensuring that the Globe continues to thrive. You may hear from us in the coming months, and I hope you will respond with an enthusiastic “Yes! I want to help The Old Globe provide great theatre and education programs now and for future generations!”

Thank you for your support, and I hope you enjoy this performance – and every visit to the Globe!

Donald Cohn, Chair,
Board of Directors
The Old Globe would like to recognize and thank the following generous individuals who have made extraordinary gifts of $1 million or more to this organization. “Charitable giving and volunteering in San Diego is more than just an opportunity to share with others,” says Dean Thorp, Senior Vice President of the Wells Fargo Foundation. “It’s an opportunity to build a network that will have a role in San Diego’s future. It’s a chance to be a part of what’s happening in this wonderful city.”

In the last year, the Wells Fargo Foundation has donated $2.2 million to nearly 500 nonprofit organizations and schools in San Diego County. Mr. Thorp explains, “We do more than just donate our money; we donate the time and talents of our team members. At most of the organizations that receive Foundation grants, you’ll find Wells Fargo team members volunteering their personal time as well. We’ve found that volunteerism really helps to develop our team members, and we’re proud of our philanthropic work, not just in San Diego but throughout our whole enterprise.”

The Foundation places special focus on educational programming. “While we support job training programs, affordable housing programs and literacy programs, we are always trying to support programs that help underserved youth to be exposed to the performing arts. Programs that bring the performing arts to children help to serve our main objective of building stronger communities.”

The Wells Fargo Foundation’s continued support of The Old Globe is an example of charitable giving at its best. Not only does the Foundation make regular donations to the Globe’s Annual Fund and educational programming, but Thorp has served on the Globe’s Board of Directors for five years and Marianne Nelson, Vice President and Regional Director of Wells Fargo Institutional Trust Services, is a current Board member. Friends like the Wells Fargo Foundation help to ensure that the Globe will continue to serve the San Diego Community for years to come.
CONGRATULATIONS AND THANKS TO THE CITY OF SAN DIEGO!

The Commission for Arts and Culture Celebrates 20th Anniversary

The Old Globe congratulates the City of San Diego Commission for Arts and Culture for twenty years of outstanding service.

In 1988, the Commission was established by City Ordinance to advise the Mayor and City Council on supporting and promoting the non-profit organizations, neighborhood arts programs, festivals, public art, cultural tourism and innovative programs that help make San Diego an extraordinary and exciting place to live and visit.

Each year, the City of San Diego provides financial support to local arts and culture organizations through a rigorous application procedure managed by the Commission for Arts and Culture. City funding for arts and culture is derived from the Transient Occupancy Tax (TOT), a 10.5% tax paid by tourists visiting San Diego. The City allocates slightly less than 0.5% of total TOT proceeds to the Commission for Arts and Culture for distribution to more than 100 non-profit organizations. This funding yields positive results for the entire community.

According to the Commission’s most recent Arts and Culture Economic and Community Impact Report released in July 2008, San Diego’s arts and culture nonprofits “represent a multi-million-dollar industry fueling the local economy with $148.7 million in direct expenditures during FY 2007.” In addition, local spending by the 2 million visitors to San Diego who participated in Organizational Support Program-funded arts and cultural events last year boosted the economy by $492 million.

The City’s investment in The Old Globe helps sustain a year-round production schedule of world-class theatre, with more than 630 performances of plays and musicals on three stages in Balboa Park.

The City of San Diego Commission for Arts and Culture has served as a catalyst for San Diego’s emergence as a center of global creativity and innovation. The Commission’s dedicated staff and volunteer Commissioners deserve a standing ovation for their ongoing work and steadfast commitment.

Glossary of Baseball Terms

A.L.C.S.  Abbreviation for American League Championship Series, a best-of-seven playoff series that determines which American League team will go to the World Series.

ACE ON THE HILL  When a team has their best pitcher starting the game. “The hill” refers to the pitching mound.

CALLED UP  A minor league player who is promoted to the major leagues.

CANDLESTICK  Candlestick Park. Former home to the San Francisco Giants and current home to the San Francisco 49ers. Structural damage was incurred during the 1989 Loma Prieta earthquake minutes before Game 3 of the World Series was to be played.

CUT HIM LOOSE  To be fired, traded or let go from a ball club.

D.L.  Abbreviation for Disabled List. Listed on either a 15-day or 60-day D.L., players are removed from the team and replaced by healthy players during this time.

DOUBLE A  Part of the minor league or farm system of a major league team — players who are not yet ready to play in the majors or are working their way back from injuries. Double A is the mid-range classification.

FARM SYSTEM  Teams in the minor league (see Double A) whose role it is to provide experience for young players; a training ground for future major leaguers.

FREE AGENCY  In 1975 an arbitration panel declared that players with 6 years of major league service who were not under contract for the following season could, in essence, place themselves on the open market to see if other teams would offer more lucrative contracts. Until the mid-1970s players were bound to a team for the duration of their careers (unless they were cut loose or traded).

HIT AND RUN  Actually, a run and hit, an offensive situation where base runners are in motion before the ball is hit, while the batter tries to make contact with the pitch. The desired outcome is that the runners will advance at least one base and eliminate the possibility of a double-play (see Turning Two).

HIT THE CORNERS  Refers to a pitcher’s ability to throw a strike just within the boundaries of the strike zone (see Zone) without having the ball go directly over the plate.

HITTING FOR AVERAGE (OR BATTING AVERAGE)  Batting average is defined as the number of hits divided by the number plate appearances. Players who hit for average may not have the most homeruns, but can effectively put the ball in play and get a good percentage of base hits. (Walks do not count towards average.)

JUICED  An unproven theory that during the 1990–2000s, Major League Baseball was altering the make-up of baseballs, causing there to be an elevated number of homeruns hit.

MENDOZA LINE Named for shortstop Mario Mendoza, a term that refers to a player's batting average (see Hitting for Average) falling below .200, the minimum level for acceptable offensive output regardless of defensive ability.

ON THE SCREWS When a batter hits the ball squarely.

PARK ONE Hit a home run.

PENNANT RACE The last weeks of the season when teams compete for playoff spots. Winners are the American and National League teams who then compete in the World Series.

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR An award given at the end of the season to the best first-year player in the American and National Leagues.

SAC FLY Short for Sacrifice Fly. With a runner on third base and fewer than two outs, the batter may hit a fly ball to the outfield which is caught, thus sacrificing himself, if it scores the runner.

SKIP Short for Skipper, another term for the team's manager.

SLUGGER A player who is a home-run hitter, or hits the ball often for doubles or triples.

THE BREAK Refers to the All-Star Break in the middle of July, the halfway point of the season. Regular play is suspended for 3 days of festivities, during which time there is an exhibition game between the American and National Leagues' best players. Beginning in 2003, whichever League wins the game obtains home-field advantage for the World Series.

THREAT TO STEAL A stolen base occurs when a base runner advances to the next base while the pitcher is delivering the ball to home plate. The fastest runners are frequently considered threats, but a "threat" can also be a player who is good at timing a pitcher's delivery to home plate.

TOSSING BULLETS Throwing the ball very hard. Refers mainly to pitchers' fastballs.

TURNING TWO Also called a double-play, the defensive act of getting two offensive players out during one continuous play.

WARNING TRACK The portion of the outfield that is closest to and runs along the wall (over which a ball is considered a home run). That part of the field resembles a running track and is made out of dirt or composite instead of grass or turf like the rest of the field. This provides a warning to outfielders if they are running to catch a ball that they are nearing the wall.

WORK THE COUNT Used to describe an ability of a batter with a discerning eye. He will not typically swing at pitches out of the strike zone or will try to foul off many pitches to extend the at-bat and force the pitcher to make a mistake.

ZONE The strike zone; the vertical space between a hitter's knees and the letters on his uniform, and horizontally from one side of home plate to the other.
The LIFEBOOD of THE OLD GLOBE: ANNUAL FUND GIFTS

With your help, The Old Globe has become the 6th largest and one of the most respected regional theatres in the country. And we couldn’t do it without you — our Annual Fund donors!

The Old Globe’s Capital Campaign, Securing a San Diego Landmark, has received some magnanimous gifts that are designated exclusively for the construction of our new theatre center and building an endowment. But the Globe still needs ongoing annual support to continue our artistic and education programs.

Charity Navigator, the foremost evaluator of non-profit organizations, ranks The Old Globe in the top 6% of all non-profits in the country for “exceptional” financial management and the resources that go into our productions and education programs (and not the overhead). So you can be sure that your gift to the Globe really goes toward what you see on stage and what happens in classrooms across the county!

What Does Your Annual Fund Gift Support?

► The artists who put spectacular shows on our stages — actors, directors, scenic artists, sound engineers, costume makers, and more
► Production equipment and materials — everything from the 150 stage lights used in Back Back Back to a pair of historically accurate, reproduction Renaissance shoes for an actor in the Shakespeare Festival
► Our many education programs, reaching 50,000 children and adults each year, including free student matinees for public school students, theatre workshops by Globe Teaching Artists in classrooms across the county, and literacy initiatives that get children reading, writing, and performing their own plays

The gifts that keep the curtain rising are Annual Fund gifts from donors who can give us $50 or $500 or $1,000 or $5,000. Ticket income covers just 50% of the costs of producing the great theatre you see on our stages. The Old Globe depends on your support to keep the thrill of world-class theatre alive in San Diego.

SPECIAL GIFTS TO THE OLD GLOBE:
Education Donors and Volunteers

The Old Globe’s Education Department is the fortunate recipient of many gifts from the San Diego community. Funding comes from numerous donors who commit their philanthropic gifts to the cause of enriching the lives of San Diegans young and old. The Old Globe’s Education programs are given freely to children and adults year round, but they aren’t “free.” The Globe incurs costs for every program and event. Student matinees are probably the most expensive “free” offering the Globe provides. These weekday matinees just for student audiences cost the Globe the same amount as regular evening performances. The Theatre pays the full cost of these performances and, in addition, the Education Department includes pre-show workshops at each school that attends the matinees.

Our Summer Shakespeare Intensive, a four-week full-day program that immerses teens in the study and performance of a Shakespeare play, involves the costs of teachers, directors, designers, stage managers, and our full Production Department in the classes, rehearsals and mounting of the program’s performance in the Lowell Davies Festival Theatre.

The costs of providing these programs are extensive but the rewards are even greater. The Globe and its donors have the satisfaction of knowing that the efforts are bringing the magic of live theatre to children who might otherwise never have the opportunity to attend or participate. Our education programs enrich the community by making theatre part of the lives of thousands of children each year.

There is a sense of teamwork here at the Globe that involves our Board, our donors, and our staff and volunteers. Our donors often see themselves as partners in what we do, and they take the time to serve on the Education Committee, attend student matinees, visit schools to see Globe Readers or In-School Workshops and Residencies, and read thank-you letters written by students. They give their financial gifts and they give their attention. It’s this follow-through that makes the difference. The knowledge that there are people who really care about what we’re doing gives us a sense of empowerment and purpose. The people working here at The Old Globe have been the beneficiaries of that very special kind of philanthropy.

There is another kind of gift that keeps the Education Department not only alive but vibrant — the gift of time. Our volunteers give their time, energy and talents to tell stories. I’m referring to two education programs that tell stories in very different ways. Our Docents tell the story of The Old Globe while guiding visitors on tours through the many fascinating behind-the-scenes areas that are part of this wonderful theatre. The Docents share their knowledge and love of this organization and are an integral part of what we do. They love what they do and they’re very, very good at it.

Our Globe Readers tell another kind of story. These volunteers read stories to children in schools all over San Diego County. They encourage the children to read and to write stories and then many of those children’s stories are turned into short plays. Children everywhere learn a love of reading and a love of theatre. Their affection for their volunteer Reader translates to affection for The Old Globe – the place that person talks about at each school visit.

We are grateful to all who give — those that give of their financial resources and those that give of their time. All of our lives are enriched by their generosity and the high expectations that they have for The Old Globe.

If you would like to make a gift to Globe education programs, please contact the Development Office at (619) 231-1941. If you are interested in becoming a Globe Reader or Docent, please contact the Education Department at (619) 231-1941 x2141.

The Globe’s 13,000-square foot “outdoor lobby” will feature an expanded dining pavilion and seating areas and stunning new landscaping, providing a comfortable welcome to theatergoers, as well as many of the 12 million annual visitors to Balboa Park.

A TEMPORARY THEATRE NEXT DOOR
During construction, The Old Globe has built a temporary arena stage in the James S. Copley Auditorium at the San Diego Museum of Art. We are grateful to the Museum for leasing us this space just steps away from the Globe to house our “second stage” productions. In building this theatre, we had one goal: to provide you with uninterrupted enjoyment of our intimate productions.
The Old Globe’s ability to maintain the highest standard of excellence, while keeping ticket prices affordable, is due in large part to the financial support of more than 3,500 individuals, businesses, foundations and government agencies. Please join us in giving a warm thanks and recognition to these leaders who have made tonight and our 625 other performances possible. The Old Globe appreciates the support of those who have stepped into the spotlight.
